

DEADLINE IS FEBRUARY 1st, 2024

Virginia V. Irvin Volunteer Hall of Fame Nominations Sought

The Wisconsin State Genealogical Society is seeking nominations for an inductee into its Virginia V. Irvin Volunteer Hall of Fame. The Hall of Fame was established to honor exceptional service rendered to, or through, WSGS or one of its Affiliated Societies. Service may be of a one-time nature (e.g., creation of an index or other research tool), or may be ongoing for several years. The award will be presented at the banquet during the WSGS Gene-A-Rama Conference. The honoree will be a guest of WSGS with full conference registration and banquet paid.

To nominate an individual, WSGS or Affiliated Society members may fill out the attached application form and submit it to the WSGS office via e-mail by the deadline of February 1st of the year applying. Service to be honored should occur in the year prior to the application being submitted. The honoree will be notified of their award in late February.

The late Mrs. Virginia V. Irvin distinguished herself through years of volunteer service to the Wisconsin genealogical community rendered through the Wisconsin State Genealogical Society, in which she served in many capacities including the creation of cemetery transcriptions, serving as Queries Editor and as Assistant Editor of the Wisconsin State Genealogical Society Newsletter, maintaining the Publications program of WSGS, operating the WSGS Bookstore, and as Editor of the WSGS Newsletter for over fourteen years, single-handedly producing a publication noted for timeliness, reliability and usefulness of content. She also concurrently served as Treasurer of the Wisconsin State Genealogical Society and brought the Society from a state of financial disarray to one of true financial stability to the extent that the Society able to make significant material contributions to research resources in Wisconsin through major gifts to the Wisconsin Historical Society.

Wisconsin State Genealogical Society,
wsgs@wsgs.org

Wisconsin State Genealogical Society Virginia V. Irvin Volunteer Hall Of Fame Nomination Form

Nominee Information

Name of Individual: _____

Name of Organization the Individual is affiliated with (e.g., WSGS, Rock County Genealogical Society, etc.):

Contact Information

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Nomination Submitted By

Name of Individual or Organization: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

The Virginia V. Irvin Volunteer Hall of Fame was established to honor exceptional service rendered to, or through, WSGS or one of its Affiliated Societies. Service may be of a one-time nature (e.g., creation of an index or other research tool), or may be ongoing for several years. The award will be presented at the WSGS Gene-A-Rama Conference. The honoree will be a guest of WSGS with full conference registration and banquet paid. To nominate an individual, WSGS or Affiliated Society members may fill out the application form and submit it to the WSGS office via e-mail by the deadline of February 1st. Service to be honored should occur the year previous to the application being submitted. The honoree will be notified of their award by early March.

Please attach a maximum of two pages describing your nominee's contributions to the Wisconsin genealogical community.

Completed nominations must be e-mailed by February 1st to:

Wisconsin State Genealogical Society
wsgs@wsgs.org